

AN EASY WAY TO CREATE YOUR LEGACY

Health, dignity, and care for all women and girls everywhere

Rarely can we control the outcome of things we care deeply about. And yet, by including a gift for USA for UNFPA in your will, you can champion gender equity beyond your lifetime, leading the way for the health, dignity, and care of all women and girls worldwide for many generations.

With a gift in your will, trust, or by beneficiary designation, you can protect a woman's right to decide if, when, and with whom to become pregnant. You can ensure pregnant women in remote regions have access to a skilled birth attendant and can deliver their babies safely. You can ensure future generations have access to safe spaces for women and girls to live free from violence, continue their education, and pursue their chosen future.

You have the power to create your own legacy for all women and girls with an easy gift that costs you nothing today. Leaving a gift to USA for UNFPA in your will, trust, or by beneficiary designation is a simple way to extend your support to ensure women's care and rights are prioritized no matter the circumstance. Your legacy can ensure every pregnancy is wanted, every childbirth is safe, and every young person's potential is fulfilled.
